THE LOCAL COURTS.

Motions Made, Action Taken, and Suits Filed Yesterday.

O'LEARY AND MURPHY WANT BAIL. In the criminal court, yesterday, Mr. C. C. Cole, counsel for John H. Murphy and Charles O'Leary, the notorious confidence operators, asked the court to admit his clients to bail pending the hearing for a new trial in the court in bane. These men have been tried and convicted in the criminal court, but the case was taken to the court above on legal technicalities. Mr. Cole informed the court that the men had been giving valuable information in the further-ance of justice, and if released might give more. The men had already been confined a long time, and some time longer must clapse long time, and some time longer must easies before the court passed on the case. Assistant District Attorney Taggart opposed the motion. The court said while having a pre-cedent for allowing the motion, he would consider the matter and give a decision on Saturday.

A DIVORCE GRANTED. Ellen V. Clements was yesterday granted by Judge Hagner a divorce from Noah A. Clements on the ground of desertion. They were married here October 2, 1877, and lived together for about six months, when the de-fendant deserted her and remained away several months. He returned about the time their child was born and lived with her a short time, and again deserted her, remaining away ever since

AN INJUNCTION AGAINST A RAILWAY. The case of Henry M. Knight for an injunc-tion against the Baltimore and Potomac rail-way company to prevent them from keeping cars on Virginia avenue southwest was yescommenced in the equity court before Judge Hagner.

ODDS AND ENDS. Charles B. Church yesterday entered suit against John Van Riswick for an account and injunction to ascertain the amount due the plaintiff on certain real estate transactions.

Justice Wylie yesterday adjourned the grand jury until next Tuesday. This is one of the lightest sessions in the history of grand juries for some time past.

Kiralfy's Elephant Demolishes a Fruit Stand.

The idiosyncracies of the educated elephant are as undefinable to the average mind as are the city ways of the rural congressman. The men who sleep and cat with Bamboo, the dramatic attachment to the "Around the World" spectacle of the Kiralfy brothers, ing that Asiatic emigrant out for an airing, to find that he had suddenly concluded to take out his naturalization papers, declare himself an American citizen, and act accordingly. Bamboo usually acts as docle as any other celestial, and obeys commands as readily acts. now holding forth at the National, were much Bamboo usually acts as docile as any other celestial, and obeys commands as readily as a New York or Philadelphia heeler, but yesterday his breakfast had evidently been served cold or had not been cooked to his taste, for upon a voyage down the avenue he concluded that he needed fruit, and walking quietly but determinedly to a fruit stand at the corner of Four-and-a-half street, he helped himself to about a half peck of apples, deliberately gulped down two dozen oranges, wiped four candy jars off the shelf and distributed several trayssof cakes and nuts for the amusement of the newsboys and bootblacks, on the sidewalk. The Italian proprietor retreated to a safe position in the center of the street and surveyed the scene in amazement and disgust. When Bamboo had finished his lauch he quietly turned round and subhis lunch he quietty turned round and sub-nitted to the wishes of his keeper. Then the fruit vender found his tongue and temper, and he made Rome how!. It took four police-men to hold him until Mr. Kiralfy came down and repaired damages. gregation. The altar and gallery of the church were most tastefully decorated with the traditional evergreens, and in the center of the arch, directly over the pulpit, was suspended a huge star, typical of that shining orb whose golden light guided the wise men of old to Bethlehem on the first Christmas morning. The church was filled with the children from the schools of this church and its several missions. The programme for the evening embraced a series of choruses and recitations, that were received with much pleasure by all those present. Many of the wee little tots were highly entertaining in their selections and were roundly encored and responded with a promptness and infantile grace that captured the hearts of those who heard them. At the close of the exercises Rev. J. G. Buthler, who presided, called upon all the children present to join in singing the hymn "Christmas Bells," which was exquisitely rendered by the scholars with organ and connet accompaniment. The festivities closed with the distribution of a huge pile of boxes containing Christmas remembrances for the children.

Gentlemen's Goods. WE HAVE THIS DAY (DECEMBER 13)

REDUCTION

10 to 20 Per Cent. on every garment in our establishment. We believe

MARKING DOWN while business is booming, to give all of our customers the benefit of the mark down, and not wait until all are supplied with their Winter Suits and Overcoats, as merchanis generally do, and then come out in flaming advertisements of great reduction, when you have already purchased your winter's outfit.

Now is the Time to Mark Down! We have done so. Gentlemen who have purchased of us know the Quality and Style of our clothing, consequently we will not praise them, but let those do that who wear them.

WE HAVE BUT

PRICE

MARKED PLAIN.
